

30th EBLIDA Annual Council and Conference

“Ready to take off: libraries commitment towards a sustainable, democratic and equitable society”

14-16 June 2022 - Athens, Greece

EBLIDA – NAPLE – PL2030 on Ukraine

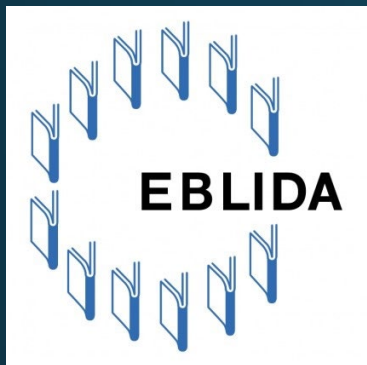

Giuseppe Vitiello – Director, EBLIDA

EBLIDA – NAPLE – PL2030

On 24th February, joint Declaration (The European Declaration)

- 35 Statements made by Library Associations and other institutions (EBLIDA Newsletter, March 2022)
- Libraries for Refugees website, <https://lib4refugees.splet.arnes.si/>
- Erasmus programme applied to libraries: Letter sent by PL2030
- Two trends: Ukrainian libraries in Ukraine and Out-of-Ukraine Libraries for Ukrainians
- Is there room for international initiatives? What about workload?

Specific needs

- Ukrainian libraries in Ukraine vs Out-of-Ukraine Libraries for Ukrainians;
- National initiatives: who, what (integration?), to whom, how?
- What should be the services provided by international library organisations? Who should do what?
- What is the availability of digital resources on Ukraine and/or in Ukrainian?

30th EBLIDA Annual Council and Conference
"Ready to take off: libraries commitment towards a sustainable, democratic and equitable society"

EBLIDA

GOETHE INSTITUT

14-16 June 2022 - Athens, Greece

The banner features a central photograph of the Caryatid Porch of the Temple of Athena Polias in Athens, Greece, with several female caryatid statues supporting the roof. The EBLIDA logo, consisting of a circle of blue book icons, is positioned in the upper left. The Goethe Institut logo is in the lower left. A circular graphic on the right side of the banner displays the 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) in a ring, with a white dotted pattern in the center. The text 'EBLIDA' is prominently displayed in the upper left, and the event title and theme are at the top. The date and location are at the bottom.

Giuseppe Vitiello – Director, EBLIDA